D. Oral Communication.

"Under State law, all items under Oral Communications can have no action and will be referred to the staff for administrative action or scheduled on a subsequent agenda." This is the opportunity for members of the public to address the Commission and Board on any item of business within the jurisdictions of the Commission and Board.

E. Commission Member Comments.

F. Adjourn to the Historic Preservation Commission's next regularly scheduled meeting on August 4, 2015, to be held in the Council Chambers at City Hall, 201 N. Broadway, Escondido.

The Brown Act provides an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the Commission on any item of interest to the public, before or during the Commission's consideration of the item. If you wish to speak regarding an agenda item, please fill out a speaker's slip and give it to the minutes clerk who will forward it to the Chairman.

If you wish to speak concerning an item not on the agenda, you may do so under "Oral Communications," which is listed at the beginning and end of the agenda. All persons addressing the Historic Preservation Commission are asked to state their name for the public record.

Electronic Media: Electronic media which members of the public wish to be used during any public comment period should be submitted to the Planning Division at least 24 hours prior to the meeting at which it is to be shown.

The electronic media will be subject to a virus scan and must be compatible with the City's existing system. The media must be labeled with the name of the speaker, the comment period during which the media is to be played and contact information for the person presenting the media.

The time necessary to present any electronic media is considered part of the maximum time limit provided to speakers. City staff will queue the electronic information when the public member is called upon to speak. Materials shown to the Commission and Board during the meeting are part of the public record and may be retained by the City.

The City of Escondido is not responsible for the content of any material presented, and the presentation and content of electronic media shall be subject to the same responsibilities regarding decorum and presentation as are applicable to live presentations.

Availability of supplemental materials after agenda posting: Any supplemental writings or documents provided to the Commission regarding any item on this agenda will be made available for public inspection in the Planning Division located at 201 N. Broadway during normal business hours, or in the room while the meeting is in session.

The City of Escondido recognizes its obligation to provide equal access to public services to individuals with disabilities. Please contact the A.D.A. Coordinator, (760) 839-4643, with any requests for reasonable accommodation, at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

The Planning Division is the coordinating division for the Historic Preservation Commission.
